DASH & DEN

THE LORD CALLS DASH

One night, Father Noah, whose eyes were becoming so tired that he could barely keep them open, was lying in his bed. Dash, too, was lying down next to Father Noah, his Master. He, too, was fast asleep, snoring, and dreaming of chasing squirrels.

Then a bark called from outside. Dash awoke and his ears perked up. He placed his nose right in his Master's face, and said to him, "AROO WOOF! RRRRUUH?" (which means, "Master, here I am! Did you call me?")

Father Noah, slightly annoyed but with great patience said, "No, Dashy, I did not call you. Go back to bed. Lie down. No, no – no kisses! – lie down!"

So Dash pawed at the blanket, turned three times around, adjusted his pillow, then lay down in his place. "Good night, Dash!" And both fell back to bed.

A second time, the bark called to Dash. Dash awoke, placed his nose right in his Master's face, and said to him as before, "AROO WOOF! RRRRUUH?"

"Dash!" Father Noah said, "No! I did not call! Go and lie down!" So Dash pawed once more at the blanket, turned three times around, readjusted his pillow, then lay down in his place.

A third time, the bark called to Dash. Dash got up as before, and with some apprehension, pawed at his Master gently and spoke softly: "Aroo ... Woof ... Rrrruuh?"

Father Noah realized that maybe someone else was calling out to Dash. So he said to him, "Dash, go and lie down, and if the voice calls you, say 'Speak Lord for your servant is listening!'"

So Dash pawed at the blanket, turned three times around, nosed at his pillow a number of times until it flipped over to the cool side, then lay himself down in his place.

After a while, Dash heard the voice a third time – this time, too, a knock at the door! – and Dash replied as he had been instructed, but with howls and growls as well; and he pawed at his Master and licked his face, when all the sudden a mysterious stranger appeared to Dash in their midst.

STOCKHOLDERS CLUB

We had our first drawing this past Sunday. Congratulations to Deacon Ed Fronick who received the first dividend payment! Our next drawing will be on Sunday, February 14 after the 7:30 a.m. Mass. The early drawing will give you extra time to go spend your winnings on your special Valentine.

When we booked Andre's Banquet Hall, we originally booked the small room with a max of 160 people. We are so excited to report we have surpassed that number and have now opened the room up to 320 people. So please keep those shares in the Stockholders Club coming! There are still plenty of months remaining to be a part of the monthly drawing and you certainly want to be a part of the much anticipated Shareholder's dinner on Friday, Nov. 12, 2021 as we celebrate all that makes St Martin of Tours the amazing parish family it is! If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact Nancy Zoia at 314 952-3172.
