DASH'S DEN

“It’s amazing what you can find if you dig long enough.” - *DOG

This ceramic figure of two dancing dogs was found somewhere in Mexico.

The experts date this find to somewhere between 200 B.C. and A.D. 200 – proof (at least to this dog brain) that long before the spread of the Gospel throughout the world, God was already preparing humans on every continent to receive his great love, by means of the universal migration of the domesticated dog.
