Pastor's Pen

Dear St. Martin of Tours Family and Friends,

Many of you have noticed that I've been adding prayers and spiritual reflections in our bulletins. The reason ought to be obvious, but it's still worth mentioning.

As a Family of God (which is what a parish is), our primary task is to sanctify our souls, first and foremost for our salvation, but also to become a channel of salvation for others. We need to take our salvation seriously! – Not as something to be taken for granted or assumed to be inevitable. By no means! We are told time and again in Scripture that the Way of Salvation is difficult as “through the narrow door” (Lk 13:24) or “the eye of the needle” (Mt 19:24).

On June 19, we celebrated the Feast of St. Romuald who over a thousand years ago established an order of hermits later called Camaldolese (named after the mountains where the first monastery was built). These hermits do their work in solitude, gardening, cleaning, baking, writing, reading, and praying.

Come to think of it, the events of 2020 forced us to live a bit like Camaldolese monks! But even now with the epidemic practically over, I am aware that many in our parish who desire a deeper union with God (which I do indeed hope is all of us!) could be helped by the wisdom of St. Romuald. So here is a brief “Rule of Life” composed by the great saint – just seven easy rules – which, if we choose to adopt them, can help us get closer to God.*

Sit in your cell as in paradise.

Put the whole world behind you and forget it.

Watch your thoughts like a good fisherman watching for fish.

The path you must follow is in the Psalms—never leave it ... take every opportunity you can to sing the Psalms in your heart and to understand them with your mind.

And if your mind wanders as you read, do not give up; hurry back and apply your mind to the words once more.

Realize above all that you are in God's presence, and stand there with the attitude of one who stands before the emperor.

Empty yourself completely and sit waiting, content with the grace of God, like the chick who tastes nothing and eats nothing but what his mother brings him.

Let us all, according to our state in life, try to live these ancient and useful practices of St. Romuald.

In Christ and Our Lady –

*From The Mystery of Romuald and The Five Brothers by Thomas Matus, O.S.B. Cam., A publication of Source Books and Hermitage Books, 1994.

STOCKHOLDERS CLUB

Congratulations to Virginia Matecki , winner of our June drawing. What a way to help celebrate the recent start of her Ninth Decade! We are so thrilled to help make this time even more special.

Our next drawing will be within a short timeframe. We will have the drawing on the 4th of July at the 10:00 a.m. Mass. As you celebrate Independence Day with bold stripes, bright stars and brave hearts, we also hope for deep pockets! Time to take stock in all that has been given to us. God bless America!

More detailed information and applications will appear in the August bulletins. Proceeds go to the St. Martin of Tours Father's Club and the St. Vincent DePaul Society.

ST MARTIN OF TOURS LADIES CLUB

SMT Ladies Club will be gathering once again for monthly parish fun. All ladies of the parish, and friends of members are welcome. We will be meeting again (finally) on July 15 7:00 p.m. in Runge Hall. Presently, we will have a short meeting sharing details of possible up coming outings and events. Time to enjoy snacks, drinks and begin nite play! At this gathering, we will introduce you to Bunco, a mindless dice game of fun! All you need is a desire to have a good time and the ability to count to six! This introduction night will be "FREE" because we want you to be hooked! Cash prizes will be given. After this first meeting, if Bunco isn't your cup of tea, bring cards, games, puzzles, etc. to each gathering. We will provide tables, chairs, snacks and drinks! We need a tally of those coming. Betty wants her phone to be "ringing off the hook!" Look forward to seeing you all!

James 4:11-12

Do not, my brothers, speak ill of one another. The one who speaks ill of his brother or judges his brother is speaking against the law. It is the law he judges. If, however, you judge the law you are no observer of the law, you are its judge. There is but one Lawgiver and judge, one who can save and destroy. Who then are you to judge your neighbor?

Lord, you alone can heal me, for I have grieved you by my sins.

– Lord, you alone can heal me, for I have grieved you by my sins.

Once more I say: O Lord, have mercy on me,

– for I have grieved you by my sins.

From the Divine Office: Scripture and Prayers for contemplating the value
of kind speech, kind action,
and of returning a blessing to those who have hurt us.

Let us recall that God does not delight in how much we pray, but in our purity of heart and sorrow for sin.

1 Peter 3:8-9

All of you should be like-minded, sympathetic, loving toward one another, kindly disposed, and humble. Do not return evil for evil or insult for insult. Return a blessing instead. This you have been called to do, that you may receive a blessing as your inheritance.

FLOWERS FOR ST MARTIN OF TOURS

We love to see our church adorned with beautiful flowers but those flowers are very expensive and do not have a long life. A wise parishioner suggested we have a year round flower fund which would provide beauty throughout the year. If you are interested in donating to this lovely cause please drop a check or cash in an envelope in the basket stating flower fund on it. If you have a suggestion of what flowers you would like to see in the sanctuary area or around the church please let us know.

DASH'S DEN

Dear Humans,

I had a play-date last Tuesday with Moose the beagle.

Who is Moose? Well, just as I have a Daddy, Moose has a Mommy, the nice lady in the office who lets me eat some of her lunch.

Moose and I had fun. We ran around, wrestled, and howled. But I still had to make certain that Moose knew who the Alpha-dog is around here! Yes indeed, Dad's home is Dash's Domain!

But because this is my home I also have the very important responsibility to be a good host, making visitors feel welcome like Moose's Mom and my Dad try to do. So I shared my toys with Moose, I let him run around in my fenced-in territory, and I did let him win a few wrestling matches with me (but I couldn't let myself allow him to eat my food!). How surprised I was that when Moose left to go home, I began to whine and cry. My gosh, I think I have a friend – another dog! I love my Daddy (just as you love Jesus, right?), but now I know that it's important to love other dogs and to treat them as I would like to be treated. Next time, I promise to share my food with Moose. (However, I'm not ready yet to share my snacks.)

And by the way, why would you name your dog Moose? I mean, if you had a moose, would you name it "Dog"? Some of these names parents are giving their kids these days ... What are these silly humans thinking?
