DASH'S DEN

Our story from last week continues, although Dash insisted that he be the one to complete the story. I hope he sticks to Scripture

Daddy and I were astonished at what appeared in our room with such suddenness. What was this mysterious creature? Although it was too dark to discern its form, being the dog that I a I cut through the darkness with my powerful sniffer.

I instantly recognized that unmistakable savory odor –why, this was no less than the smell of temptation! – the smell of that forbidden fruit which hung from that ancient tree in the Garden.

“And what kind of tree was that?” I tried to remember. “A fig tree? No. A wig tree? No. ... Ah yes, I’ve got it – a pig tree!”

A limpid moonbeam found its way through a small aperture between the window sill and the bottom of a window blind and fell upon the mysterious figure.

“It is! It is! The time of Great Expectations!” I cried with joy. “The Day of Bacon has arrived!” Moreover, this was no ordinary bacon, but a fantastic piece of bacon nearly seven feet tall, thick cut, and cured with maple syrup.

“Could I be dreaming?” I thought. So I rushed toward Bacon, leapt up on him and tried to take a bit out of his nose.

Bacon leaned over and petted me just under my chin. “Dash!” called Bacon.

“Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening!” I said.

“Dash, do you want to play?” asked Bacon.

“No,” said Dash. “I don’t want to play! I want to eat! Specifically... You!”

WOOF! (THE END)

I would like to thank Dash for having completed this most wonderful story which is, I think, actually a request disguised as a story. Dash, just so you know: You’re not getting any of my bacon!

STOCKHOLDERS CLUB

We had our first drawing this last Sunday. Congratulations to Deacon Ed Fronick who received the first dividend payment! Our next drawing will be on Sunday, February 14 after the 7:30 a.m. Mass. The early drawing will give you extra time to go spend your winnings on your special Valentine.

When we booked Andre's Banquet Hall, we originally booked the small room with a max of 160 people. We are so excited to report we have surpassed that number and have now opened the room up to 320 people. So please keep those shares in the Stockholders Club coming! There are still plenty of months remaining to be a part of the monthly drawing and you certainly want to be a part of the much anticipated Shareholder's dinner on Friday, Nov. 12, 2021 as we celebrate all that makes St Martin of Tours the amazing parish family it is! If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact Nancy Zoia at 314 952-3172.

PASTOR'S PEN

IN THE BACK OF THE BULLETIN

On the Feast of the Immaculate Conception

we consecrated our parish to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. As would have it, the Holy Father proclaimed for the Universal Church, also beginning on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, "The Year of St. Joseph."

So let us
honor
The Immaculate Heart of Mary,
*The Chaste
Heart of Joseph,*
&
The Sacred Heart of their Divine Son.

Heavenly Father, please grant to us and to our parish the same protection you granted to the Holy Family when they were forced to take flight into Egypt.

We praise You and Bless You.

Amen!
